Norway Spruce in Porch Box

Climbing Roses in Our Nursery

Roses

Rose growing has always been our leading specialty, and for several years we have paid particular attention to developing stock for forcing purposes. The grade is extra heavy and specified as XXX. Stock offered is available for shipment as soon as sufficiently ripened by frosts to insure the best results in forcing.

Excelsa (Red Dorothy Perkins)

Climbing Roses

XXX $40.00 per 100
$350.00 per 1000

(except as noted)

Crimson Rambler, deep crimson.

Dorothy Perkins, shell pink.

Eugene Jacquette, cherry red, large clusters, @ 45 cts.

Excelsa (Red Dorothy Perkins).

Flower of Fairfield (Ever-blooming Crimson Rambler).

Hiawatha, single red with white eye.

Rosarie (Red Tausendschon).

Tausendschon (Thousand Beauties).

White Dorothy Perkins.

(The most popular varieties in the above assortment are Tausendschon, Rosarie, and Dorothy Perkins, but all of the kinds listed have been thoroughly tried and produce very fine bloom trusses when forced.)

Dwarf Polyantha or Baby Type Roses

XXX $ 35.00 per 100
300.00 per 1000

Baby Rambler (Mme. Norbert Levavasseur), crimson.

Baby Tausendschon, pink.

Echo, soft tender rose.

Ellen Poulsen, dark pink.

Erna Teschendorff, bright carmine red.

Greta Kluis, deep pink, large full flower.

Jessie, flaming scarlet.

Marechal Foch, light red, very large clusters, free blooming.

Miss Edith Cavell, brilliant crimson, white eye.

Mrs. Cutbush, rose pink.

Baby Rambler

Magna Charta

Hybrid Perpetual Roses

XXX $35.00 per 100
300.00 per 1000

American Beauty, crimson, very large globular blooms.

Frau Karl Druschki, white.

Magna Charta, pink, very large flowers.

Ulrich Brunner, light red, large cup-shaped flowers.

Magna Charta leads this assortment, because it is by far the most popular of all Hybrid Roses for forcing. The variety is a strong grower, a very free bloomer, is brought into bloom easily, and has the desirable characteristic of holding its petals well.

For a complete assortment of other varieties of Hybrid Perpetuals, see our regular Trade Price List.

Hybrid Tea Roses

$40.00 per 100; $350.00 per 1000

In this class the leading variety is the free blooming, bright scarlet Gruss an Teplitz. Many other kinds are available also and will be found in our regular Trade catalogue. We try to keep our assortment up-to-date, and it contains many of the recent introductions which are proving so popular for out-of-door planting.

Half Standard Roses

18-in. stems, $75.00 per 100

Assorted Baby Rambler varieties, double budded, at a height which make them work out very nicely for forcing. Two Dwarfs in a pot with a Half Standard make a well-balanced display.
